

SQM INFORMS STATUS OF ITS OPERATIONS IN THE NORTH OF CHILE, FOLLOWING ADVERSE WEATHER CONDITIONS

Santiago, Chile. August 10, 2015.- Sociedad Química y Minera de Chile S.A. (SQM) (NYSE: SQM; Santiago Stock Exchange: SQM-B, SQM-A) reported that, as a result of the storms that have affected the north of Chile in the last few days, the Company's operations in María Elena, the Salar de Atacama, and the Salar del Carmen were temporarily suspended as a preventative measure, for safety purposes. These facilities are currently operating normally.

There was no damage to the Port of Tocopilla, but operations have been suspended until improved weather conditions enable operations to be carried out safely. At the same time, the Company is providing support to its workers and their families who have been affected by the storms.

SQM has also offered to help local authorities with clean-up and reconstruction efforts in the areas that have been impacted by the storm, especially in the city of Tocopilla.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as: "anticipate," "plan," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "strategy," "should," "will" and similar references to future periods. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements we make concerning the Company's business outlook, future economic performance, anticipated profitability, revenues, expenses, or other financial items, anticipated cost synergies and product or service line growth.

Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are estimates that reflect the best judgment of SQM management based on currently available information. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors that are outside of our control and could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated in such statements. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements. Readers are referred to the documents filed by SQM with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, specifically the most recent annual report on Form 20-F, which identifies important risk factors that could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are based on information available to SQM on the date hereof and SQM assumes no obligation to update such statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
